DEDICATION

As awesome as the new library is, it takes only the familiar wave from the office by the entrance to give the structure its personality. As unconquerable as its rows and rows of books appear, the knowledge necessary for control is simply in asking the right man, and when this man does this job with understanding and amiability beyond measure, the school most surely owes him a fitting tribute.

We, the Senior class, do therefore dedicate the 1975 Pac Sac to Dr. Lennart Pearson.

... choose one or defy them all.

but each one as part of something greater...

BALL

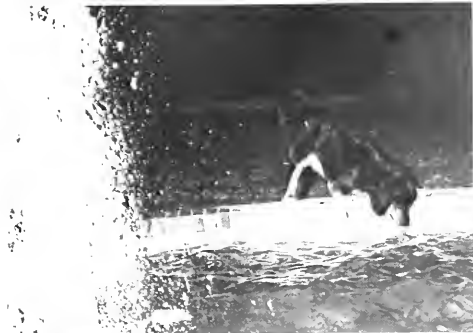

... the indulgence
into the corporate mind of the community.

The battle against alienation begins in the halls of the institution. The slow cycle of day-to-day reunion. The English class with John two seats over. . . the table in the lunchroom with the most attraction. . . Bio Lab. . . then to the house.

You walk in and out.

It's your own combination.

The choice of how and to whom you relate.

The choice, the value you ascribe to daily functions, is your outward projection, the self-portrait sculptured from the everyday.

It is perhaps at this place, this school, where the formulation of all that you are to become originates.
And it is only tempered by what you already are,
on the inside.

So P.C. is an end, or a beginning, or a transitory experience, depending on what you make of it, and what you and the world, in the overall,
make of yourself.

P. C. PLAYERS

The PC Players is a group of students interested in acting and or backstage work who present plays throughout the year for the student body and public. In the fall of 1974, the Players presented "The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds. In March, they presented "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," the first musical to be performed by the Players. The PC Players also had a new director this year. While Mr. Rains was away on sabbatical, J. Skelly Warren provided direction. It is through his direction that the Players have been able to present some excellent performances to their audiences.

THE BLUE STOCKING

From photos of streaking, to wallowing in Watergate, to reports on the dean's driving habits, to letters from Harry Dent, to an uproar over the "Lampoon," the 1974 Blue Stocking was the most read, the most discussed volume of the Presbyterian College student newspaper to ever be published. Under the editorship of Eddie Lee, the Blue Stocking became a potent sounding block for student body opinions on campus, national, and state issues. With a staff unafraid of taking controversial stands in hope of bringing progress to the college, the 1974 edition of the Blue Stocking will not soon be forgotten.

The Council for Exceptional Children is a professional organization whose purpose is to promote the welfare and education of exceptional children and youth. The PC Chapter of CEC is active in volunteer service at Whitten Village, particularly at Webb Center, the school for orthopedically handicapped children. After an organizational meeting in September, CEC sponsored a Halloween party and a Christmas party for the kids at Webb Center. Our CEC members have represented South Carolina at regional and international conventions. One of the main projects of our chapter is helping to sponsor our Regional Special Olympic Games held in the spring of each year.

FOB

Freshman Orientation Members attempt to help the freshman class make its initial entrance to PC with as much ease as possible. Meals are eaten as a group, meetings are held to explain the rules and regulations of the college, and informal talk sessions are held to help the freshmen during this transition period. The week is culminated in a field day of fun and games.

VOLUNTEER SERVICES

The Student Volunteer Service Program has been developing in ministry to the Community of Laurens County since 1966. The 1974-1975 year will see more than 350 student volunteers serve some 1500 children, adults, and aging persons. The design for service enables students to engage in responsible Christian commitment in growth experiences of mutual dignity for both the volunteer and the persons served. Leadership potential matures as volunteers redesign old programs, incorporate new programs, and plan each day's activities. The dedication and work of the students plus the guidance skills of numerous faculty members continually sustains resources for service.

CHILD OUT REACH PROGRAM

ROTC

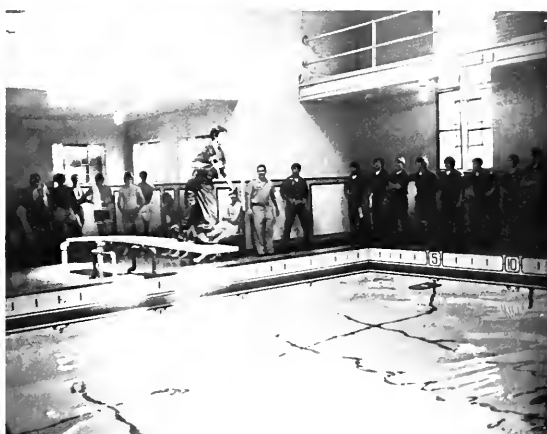

Reserve Officer Training Corps provides juniors and seniors an opportunity to be commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army upon graduation. This obligation is fulfilled through drill, classroom participation and instruction, plus a six-week summer camp at Ft. Bragg, North Carolina. Upon successful completion of the basic freshman and sophomore program, cadets may choose to continue in the advanced program. A limited female enrollment began in the fall of 1974.

"A FUNNY THING HAPPENED

P.C.'S FIRST MUSICAL, "A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM", WAS PRESENTED IN MARCH UNDER THE DIRECTION OF J. SKELLY WARREN. THE SLAPSTICK FARCE INCLUDED THE TALENTS OF TWENTY-ONE STUDENTS AND A THIRTEEN-PIECE ORCHESTRA LED BY PAT TUKEY.

Bud Early, in the lead role of Pseudolus, introduces Hero, played by James Brown, to Philia (Laura Smith).

The proteans, disguised as citizens, complain of Pseudolus' misdeeds to his master, Hero.

The proteans and courtesans sing the virtues of Miles Gloriosus, (Doug Stone).

ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM"

Lycus (Joe McGraw), Pseudolus, Hysterium (Randy Herd), and Senex (Carl Milton) sing the show-stopping "Everybody Ought To Have A Maid".

Hysterium, disguised as Philia, is told by Pseudolus that he is "Lovely".

Pseudolus drinks the "hemlock" while the cast looks on in honor.

In the final scene, Hero tells his mother Domina (Donna Looper) and his father Senex that he intends to marry Philia
